

Amandine ALTURA and Elsa WAGNER PINOSA

PUBLIC SOCIETAL COMMITMENT

Develop Mayoly's contribution to the scientific community and industrial sovereignty

OUR SUCCESSES IN 2025

Choose France :

Roundtable discussion on regional attractiveness

4 3 Improve care for patients and consumers

Priority

- Raise awareness and support the training of healthcare professionals to improve care for patients and consumers.
- Develop access to our products.
- Develop scientific communities.

5 12 Be a trusted reference for our stakeholders

Priority

- Act ethically, transparently and in compliance with applicable requirements to strengthen stakeholder trust and sustainably support the quality of care.
- Help safeguard health and industrial sovereignty and strengthen our local roots.
- Support our suppliers in integrating CSR criteria.

KEY FIGURES FOR 2025

9,38/10

Satisfaction score for GastroDays in Europe

60 000

Healthcare professionals visited

€15 M

invested to consolidate global Meteospasmyl production at Dammarie-les-Lys

€2,5 M

invested to relocate colchicine production to Burgundy, France

€30 M

in industrial investments planned over three years

Mayoly GastroDays,

our annual international scientific event

Held across Europe, APAC – Asia-Pacific – and Mexico :

- Sharing advances in gastroenterology
- Improving medical practices

Topicrem

contributing to knowledge sharing within the dermatology community

- Showcasing scientific expertise in hyperpigmentation and acne-prone skin
- 4,301 visitors welcomed to the booth, up 23% compared with 2024

Mayoly is taking action to strengthen health and industrial sovereignty

to help ensure access to essential medicines

- Relocating colchicine production to Burgundy (Bourgogne)
- Strengthening industrial capacity in France

